ASH

WEDNESDAY 2019 - FROM BISHOP RHYNE'S DESK

One of the more powerful moments of the church year has always been for me, and I would suspect for any pastor, the moment after the imposition of ashes when you look out at the congregation and see everyone marked with the black ash crosses. That moment is a stark visual reminder that everyone you love and care for, no matter their age, health, or ability will die. It is a visual representation of the phrase, "Remember that you are dust and to dust you shall return."

As you gather this Ash Wednesday I invite you to look around and see how you are surrounded by people who have been marked for death. Set in the hard reality that your life, my life, the lives of all we see, and the lives of all people do end. Ash Wednesday can be sobering as it reminds us of the truth of our existence.

However, Ash Wednesday also reminds us that death does not have the last word over us. These crosses not only remind us of our mortality but remind us that Jesus destroyed the power of death. In his death on the cross our Lord Jesus went into death itself—but death could not hold him. Death could not contain the one who is the God who brought all life into being.

It was in our baptism that we were first marked with the cross of Christ. The ash cross is a reminder of the promise of one who has claimed us and will never let us go. Nothing, not even death, can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Ash Wednesday is a reminder of the hope we have in Jesus. Whether we live or whether we die we belong to Jesus Christ. Jesus is our hope, our way, our truth, our life, and our salvation. We are called to follow him. We are called to follow the only one who can save us.

May our Lord Jesus be with you. May you know Christ's presence now and always. May you know the great gift of life you have received in Jesus Christ. May you be led by the Holy Spirit to turn back to our Savior and follow his way of self-giving love and mercy in this world.

May Christ bless you now and always.

+Bishop Michael Rhyne

This year's Allegheny Synod Can Challenge total was 37,395 items collected. We realize our total is a little short of our 40,000 goal, but we still had great year and were able to help a lot of people. Over the last 5 years we have collected 222,839!
