WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY FOR TRINITY MEMBERS

JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT

The Center for the Performing Arts will present Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber's classic musical
JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT
at 7:30 pm Saturday, February 13, in Eisenhower Auditorium.

The family-friendly touring Broadway production features a host of unforgettable songs, including "Go, Go, Go Joseph," "Any Dream Will Do," "Close Every Door," and "One More Angel in Heaven."

The completely sung-through musical is based on a story from the Book of Genesis. The show portrays the trials and triumphs of Joseph, who is eventually sold into slavery by his brothers. The siblings, jealous about their father's preference for Joseph, fear the favored son will someday rule them unless they get rid of him.

Andy Blankenbuehler, who won Tony and Drama Desk awards for his choreography of In the Heights, directed and choreographed this production of JOSEPH. A Philadelphia Magazine critic wrote that his leadership brings new life to the show: "Many of the larger numbers infuse a playful mixture of hip-hop and pop dancing, and the overall look of the production is a fusion between the old and new. ... In short ... go, go, go see it."

For more information visit JOSEPH AND THE AMAZING TECHNICOLOR DREAMCOAT | Center for the Performing Arts at Penn State

Contact Christina Pillot, cpillot@yahoo.com, by Friday, February 5, if interested in attending

LENT SERMON SERIES

During Lent we will use a resource by Mark Allen Powell entitled, Giving To God: The Bible's Good News about Living a Generous Life. Each Sunday during Lent the sermon will revolve around one of the chapters in the book. There will also be reflection questions made available suitable for individual reflection or for family conversation.

Regarding the contents of the book, the publisher writes:

Powell presents stewardship as an act of worship, an expression of faith, and a discipline for spiritual growth. Faithful use of our time, talents and money starts with a deep, satisfying relationship with the God to whom we belong. We can then learn, says, Powell, to give gladly and generously out of our heartfelt connection with God. Informative, concise, and eminently practical (including discussion questions), Giving to God gives us resources for best using the treasures, material and otherwise, that God has given us.

Lent is traditionally a time in the church where in disciples reflect upon faith practices. This year we revisit the faith practice of giving.

Allegheny Synod
40,000 Can Challenge

The Synod's weekly can challenge count

STATE COLLEGE FOOD BANK

January 26, 2016

Trinity Lutheran Church
2221 North Oak Lane
State College, PA 16803

Dear Friends,

We are writing to express our deepest thanks for the 590 pounds of food donated to the State College Food Bank last year. Your support has demonstrated your deep commitment to our mission of "providing food security, directly and indirectly, to individuals within Centre County."

Because of such a caring community, the State College Food Bank distributed 359,618 pounds of food which is the equivalent to 299,681 meals to 1,951 individuals in 2015. This is in addition to the thousands of pounds of food distributed to other agencies.

You can always look at our current needs list to share with your parishioners by going to our web site at scfoodbank.org and clicking on the current needs link on the right (under FB news).

If you would like more information about the State College Food Bank we are available to speak to your congregation. Please contact us at 814-234-2310 or at operations@scfoodbank.org.

We, at the State College Food Bank, are continually inspired by the dedication and generosity of donors like you who answer the call and support our vision to make sure no one will go hungry in Centre County.

We look forward to a continuing partnership with you.

Best Regards,

Bill Torretti
