Citizens with the Saints

April 20, 2026

A Day in the Capitol as Church Together

Join Lutheran Advocacy Ministry in Pennsylvania (LAMPa) on Monday, April 20, for a day of learning and advocacy!

In a turbulent time for our nation and communities, we will explore what it means to live as "citizens with the saints and members of the household of God" as disciples in a democracy. Drawing on Ephesians 2:19's vision of identity rooted in baptismal belonging, we invite participants to consider how Christian discipleship shapes our civic life through grounding public witness in love of neighbor and costly solidarity, through a faithful, hope-filled presence in the public square.

Find out more and register using the QR Code or go to www.lutheranadvocacypa.org

Teams of 3 or more from a congregation planning to come together can use the promo code CONGREGATION26 for each person. Students can register with a special rate!

Easter Message from Bishop Kevin Shock

*Alleluia! Christ is risen!
Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!*

Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me." —Matthew 28:10 (NRSVue)

In Matthew's Gospel Mary Magdalene and the other Mary go to see the tomb on the morning after the sabbath. Matthew also tells us clearly that these two women are eyewitnesses to his death, his burial, and the sealing of the tomb. They know that he is dead and where his body has been placed. They also know that they will not see him again.

Yet on that morning when God upends all our human knowledge and expectation, they do see him again, and he is alive! Rather than prove them to be unreliable sources, Jesus gives them new information, good news: "go and tell my brothers and sisters to go to Galilee; there they will see me."

There they will see me. Where they had already watched him in ministry; where he had first called his disciples; in their hometowns; among their people; there they will see me.

This is not merely a promise for the immediate time after his resurrection; this is eternal promise. After he ascends to the Father; as they continue his ministry; while they teach and proclaim and baptize in his name; there they will see me.

This is eternal promise for us, as well. In our congregations; out in our neighborhoods and communities; where we are called to proclaim good news; as we carry out the ministry he has given us: Jesus says, "There they will see me."

This year, hear the message that Jesus gave to Mary and the other Mary. Wherever you gather, however you celebrate the resurrection to new life, whomever you are with, we pray that you see Jesus, and in seeing him, you receive new life. Blessings to you this Easter season.

In the peace of our risen Christ,

+Bishop Kevin and the Office of the Bishop Staff:

Dn. Alicia, Pr. Tyler, Pr. Marty Jo, Pr. Traci, Dn. Sue Ellen, Pr. John, and Michelle

*Alleluia! Christ is risen!

We all need to be outside more. Whether it is a five minute walk, resting by a stream, or a new year's goal to hike more - nature tells us who we are and whose we are. Join us this weekend for a 5K walk through nature as it springs to life, some Bible study, tree planting and an engaging session on how practicing our role in caring for our home. We only have one planet - this weekend is designed to help us appreciate and take ideas home to live more faithfully as a steward of it. This year there will not be any scheduled events on Sunday.

Past Weekend Schedule

There is not a set fee for this weekend retreat. Please attend and donate as you are able to offset the cost of lodging and meals. The Happy Camper Fun Run 5K registration is separate. All proceeds for the 5K benefit Summer Camp Scholarships.

All are welcome! Register online or call the office.
